HUSBAND SHOTS WIFE.

S. Craswell Also Wounds Her
Wouldbe Protector.

THEN TAKES OWN LIFE.

Leaves Note in Which He States He Is Going to End His Life; That He Has More Troubles Than It Is Possible to Bear.

Nashville, Ark., March 26.—S. Craswell fatally shot his wife and wounded James Barton, who attempted to protect her, then killed himself with the same weapon. Brooding over the fact that she was about to leave him is supposed to have been responsible for the tragedy.

The tragedy occurred at the home of the couple. That it was premeditated is evidenced by the fact that Craswell had left a note in which he stated that he was going to shoot himself, that he had more troubles than he could bear and that he proposed to end it all.

Mrs. Craswell is lying at her home unconscious and certain to die. Burton has a wound in his shoulder.

DISTASTEFUL PHRASE.

New Orleans Attorney Takes Up
Cudgel Against the Expression.

New Orleans, March 26.—W. O. Hart, an attorney of this city, has taken up the cudgel against the use of the words, "During the war for the suppression of the rebellion," in certain amendments offered to the federal statutes. In addressing members of congress Attorney Hart declares, "As a son of a Confederate veteran and a member of the United Sons of Confederate Veterans, I earnestly protest against these words going on the statute books, and I hope you will have the section so amended that there be inserted, 'During the war between the states.'"

WAS LINCOLN'S ASSOCIATE.

Resided in Utah During Exciting Period, Also Noted Linguist.

Chicago, March 26.—Charles B. Waite, eighty-five years old, for more than sixty-five years a resident of Chicago, court associate of Abraham Lincoln, living in Utah for years, during the turbulent times with the Mormons and an author and linguist of distinction, is dead here of pneumonia. Mr. Waite's greatest fame came to him through his book, "A History of the Christian Religion in the First Two Centuries." This work has run through six editions in America and has been translated into French and German for use in the universities of those countries. It was also translated into Norwegian by Bjorne Bjornsen.

Among other works of Judge Waite are "Herbert Spencer and His Critics," and "The Comparative Study of Tea Languages." He could read that number of languages and spoke five fluently.

Capacity to Be Increased.

Chicago, March 26.—At a meeting of representatives of 152 lodges of the Knights of Pythias held here it was decided to levy a per capita tax upon the members of the order to increase the capacity of the national Pythian sanitarium at Las Vegas, N. M. More cottages will be erected.

Judge Marshall to Preside.

Muskogee, Okla., March 26.—John A. Marshall, United States judge of the district court of Utah has been named by Judge Sanborn of the United States circuit court of appeals to preside at the trial of the cases of Governor Haskell and other Oklahomans indicted for the Muskogee alleged town lot frauds.

DALLAS TRAGEDY.

Doctor Stabbed Many Times, a Brother Surrenders.

Dallas, March 26.—With forty-four knife wounds and four gunshot ones in his body the corpse of Dr. Hugh F. Terry, a well known physician of this city, thirty-one years of age, was found by the authorities on a rug in a room at his home in this city, following notification of the authorities that he had been killed. It is asserted by members of the dead man's family that he was a victim of a drug habit.

Roy H. Terry, brother of the dead man, walked to the county jail and surrendered himself into custody, making no statement other than that the killing was unavoidable and done in self-defense.

Warrants were issued for Cleveland, Robert and Paul Terry, also brothers.

JAUNT TO EL PASO.

If It Is Taken the Trip Will Last Several Days.

Austin, March 26.—W. E. Gohke of Marfa is here arranging for the legislature to jaunt to El Paso. If the legislature accepts the invitation he says the trip will last several days. Members will stop at various west Texas towns en route. These towns share with El Paso the cost of the journey.

The house met Friday morning and dilatory tactics were pursued and an hour consumed in defeating an effort to obtain permission to print two bank deposit guaranty bills, which were reported unfavorably. When the bill was laid before the house Ray demanded it be read. The reading occupied an hour.

STARTS FROM GASOLINE.

Fire at Stanton, Tex., Does Forty-Thousand Dollars' Damage.

Stanton, Tex., March 26.—Fire which originated in the barber shop of Will Evans here caused $40,000 damage to the Home National bank, J. L. Hall's drugstore, Cox & Morrow's restaurant and Evans' barbershop. The blaze started from a gasoline tank.

Grand Prairie, Tex., March 26.—Fire which started from an unknown cause destroyed the Texas and Pacific railway passenger station, Houston & Liggett's lumber yard, Collins' hardware store, Barnes & Williams' restaurant and damaged other buildings. Loss is $25,000. A high wind was prevailing and the Texas and Pacific rushed tanks of water to help the firemen. Wilburn Grantham, an operator, sent a message as the roof was falling in, narrowly escaping death. Fire apparatus was sent from Dallas.

Condition Due to Blow.

Chicago, March 26.—Miss Nina Patee, the former school teacher, who wrote letters to President Taft, former President Roosevelt, Governor Deneen and others, has been adjudged of unsound mind at a hearing before Judge Williams. NEW WELL COMPLETED.

furnishes Fine Flow and Greatly Augments Water Supply of the Company.

The new well at the plant of the Bryan, Water, Ice, Light & Power Company has been completed at a depth of about two hundred feet. It is a fine well and furnishes a fine flow of good, pure water. The Eagle reporter took a look at the well this morning and the pump was throwing a splendid stream which had been kept steadily going since 10 o'clock the night before and there was not the slightest sign of diminution. The water ran all night into the waste track in order to thoroughly clean the well and during the day yesterday it was cut into the reservoir.

This new well will greatly augment the company's water supply and there is not likely to be any more water famines. Mr. Preston is going right ahead and sink one of the wells on the west side of the plant to the second, or dee water stratum, and when that is accomplished he believes he will have an abundance of water for all purposes.

The new well was drilled by Mr. J. W. Poyner, an expert driller from the Albert Warnecke Well Contractors of Houston. He made a fine job of it and fished it up in thorough workmanship style.

AUNT MARY ERWIN DEAD.

Aunt Mary Erwin, a faithful old "Black Mammy," but with a soul as white as snow, died Thursday night at 12 o'clock at the venerable age of 80 years. For thirty-five years she has been a faithful servant in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Cole, and during all that time she was ever true, honest and willing to faithfully perform her every duty, and her life was so pure and upright as to be worthy of emulation. She had nursed and helped to raise every child that has come to bless the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Cole, and so great was the love of every member of the family for dear old Aunt Mary that when she died, the home was converted into a house of mourning.

She has been suffering of late with heart trouble, and it was an attack of this disease that caused her death. She was able to cook supper on the night she died.

As a reward for her faithful and untiring devotion to the family, Mr. Cole provided everything necessary to give her an elegant funeral.

In the life of Aunt Mary Erwin her people should read a great lesson. For her faithfulness and her pure christian life, she gained the love and respect of all here on earth, and a crown of righteousness beyond the grave.

NEW EAST RIVER BRIDGE COMPLETED.

Greatest of New York's Many Bridges And One of the Wonders of the World.

Special to Bryan Morning Eagle.

New York, March 26.—Queensboro Bridge constitutes the main topic of conversation in Long Island City just now, and its opening to traffic next week is looked upon as the approaching signal for a great boom in the little city across the East river. The bridge will be the third connecting Manhattan with Long Island and a fourth structure—the Manhattan bridge—is now well under way.

It is now twenty-five years since the Brooklyn bridge was completed and presented to the world as one of its wonders. It occupied thirteen years to complete it. During the first year of its use it was estimated that 10,000 persons crossed it daily. In 1898, the year of the consolidation of Brooklyn and New York, this number had grown to 300,000 a day.

The threatened exodus to Brooklyn and the suburbs of Queen county was observed a decade ago, and after the consolidation municipal attention was instantly urged to a recognition of this anticipated distribution of population and the growing necessity for providing additional bridges across the East river, with the result that the Williamsburg Bridge was opened several years ago. Although its capacity is 20,000 persons an hour, it has not stopped the increase of traffic over the Brooklyn Bridge.

Between the Williamsburg and Brooklyn bridges the Manhattan Bridge was started in 1901. With its phenomenal capacity of 82,000 persons an hour and 650,000 a day, this bridge is planned to be the largest of them all.

With 7,424 feet to its credit, the new Queensboro Bridge is the largest of the bridges now erected in point of length from end to end. Its longest span is that over the river west of Blackwell's Island. The length of this span is 1,182 feet.

The bridge was planned for the accommodation of heavy traffic, and although estimated to cost $13,000,000, it has already exceeded that figure by a large amount. Although its daily carrying capacity has been stated to be 500,000 persons, it is more probable that 600,000 persons will be able to use it each day.

The westerly approach to the bridge is at Second Avenue, Manhattan, and occupies the blocks between Fifty-ninth and Sixtieth streets to the East River. Its easterly approach faces a splendid plaza in Long Island City.

Though the bridge is to be opened to traffic next week, the official opening and dedication will not take place until summer, when it is proposed to hold a monster celebration in honor of the event.

BRYAN, TEXAS, MARCH 27, 1909.

WHO IS TO BLAME?

The report comes from Austin that the majority in the house is playing the role of obstructionists and are idling away the time of the house in preventing any action on the recommendations of the governor. The Herald believes this action is without warrant. If the majority is opposed to the governor's platform and are determined to carry none of his recommendations, then they owe it to the state to say so in short order and get through what business they have in hand and quit. If it is predetermined that none of the governor's recommendations are to be passed, then there is no excuse or reason in prolonging the agony and continuing to draw pay from the people. Get busy or close out.—Palestine Herald.

The Herald is published in Governor Campbell's home town and it is natural that it should be partial to him and try to lay the blame for his misdoing on the legislature. But everybody knows that "the agony" would soon be over if the governor would submit the appropriation bill. If the legislature adjourned without passing that bill there would have to be another called session. The fact is the governor is using the appropriation bill as a grindstone to which he is endeavoring to hold the legislators' noses till they consent to enact his pet measures into laws.

The fact is Los Angeles is overworking one of her numerous means of sensational advertising—namely, the perilous adventures, hair breadth escapes and miraculous rescue, of balloon parties.

Carrie Nation says Englishmen can't think. From the point of view of people like her, nobody can think who disagrees with them—or if anyone has the power to think he ought not to be allowed to exercise it.

The Eagle has been talking broom corn and a broom factory for months but nobody else seems to be interested. Possibly the farmers and business men are expecting the vacuum cleaner to but the broom out of business. And may be it will.

Galveston has resolved to hold an international exposition in 1911 and for this object an organization has been formed and a committee appointed to raise $300,000. Those who have never seen a great exposition will have a chance this time.

Petitions are coming by mail and wire from all parts of the state asking the legislature to pass the appropriation bill and adjourn. But everybody ought to know that the legislature cannot act on the appropriation bill at a called session unless the governor submits it. Place the blame where it belongs.

There are two parties in congress, the Republicans and the Democrats; also two factions, the insurgent Republicans and the insurgent Democrats. Usually the insurgent Republicans act with the Democrats and the insurgent Democrats with the Republicans. The latter combination is stronger by a few votes.

If the author of Ecclesiastes were alive and in Texas he would probably incorporate in the next edition of his famous book something like this: Of making many laws there is no end and overmuch regulation is a weariness of the flesh. The solution of the whole matter is: choose ye for officers men who will enforce the laws ye already have.

In the house Thursday Representative Bowles offered a resolution providing that whereas the people of the state are clamoring for the legislature to adjourn and go home, and whereas a majority of the lawmakers are in favor of such action, but are without power to act until the governor has submitted the subject of appropriations, therefore the press be requested to place this fact before the people so they will understand it. This resolution was ruled out of order, but it describes the situation exactly.

Granting for the sake of argument that the so-called platform demands are a fair expression of democratic sentiment throughout the state, which there is good reason to doubt, there is really only one such "demand"—namely, to submit a prohibition amendment to a vote of the people. The others are simply recommendations and are not mandatory.

In his characteristic talk before the house Wednesday Rev. Abe Mulkey told the members that if they had enacted all the legislation proposed he would be out of a job, therefore he was glad they had not done all they were asked to do. Among the excellent qualities and Christian graces that adorn the character of this great evangelist, candor is not the least conspicuous.

The state department of agriculture acting on information received, has sent our expert entomologist to Beaumont, who reports that trees and shrubs there are infested with insect pests to an alarming extent. California and Florida have spent thousands of dollars protecting trees against such enemies and there is reason to fear that Texas must do the same or suffer incalculable damage.

In Arkansas the Statewidens contended for statutory prohibition and fought hard against submission of the question to the people, while the Antis opposed attempting to settle the question by legislative enactment and favored submitting a constitutional amendment to the people. This is exactly the reverse of the attitude of the two parties here. In Texas the Pros say the Antis are afraid to trust the people; in Arkansas the Antis make the same charge against the Pros. The fact is, both parties are not influenced so much by principle as by local conditions.

CATARRH CURED.

No Cure, No Pay, is a Most Generous Offer.

To get an antiseptic strong enough to kill catarrh germs and not destroy the tissues of the membrane at the same time, has been a problem which was never solved until the discovery of Hyomei (pronounced (Hi-me).)

Hyomei is prepared from eucalyptus, the most powerful yet healing antiseptic known. Breathe it through the inhaler over the inflamed and germ ridden membranes four or five times a day, and in a few days the germs will disappear.

The inflamed condition will go, too, and the snuffling, hawking and offensive breath, and the discharge of mucous and crusts in the nose will cease.

Then why should any catarrh sufferer hesitate, when E. J. Jenkins has such faith in Hyomei that he offers to return your money if after a fair trial Hyomei does not cure catarrh.

A complete Hyomei outfit, including the inhaler, costs $1.00, and extra bottles, if afterward needed, cost but 50 cents. Hyomei also cures asthma, croup, sore throat, coughs, colds or grip.

RETAIL MERCHANTS MEETING.

Trolley Line Proposition Sprung Again and Strong Probability of its Being Built.

The Retail Merchants of this city met at Carnegie hall at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon with President Edge presiding and Secretary Hines at his desk. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

Treasurer's report was read showing amount collected since organization, the amount expended, and a balance of $63.70 on hand.

Various matters for the good of the organization were discussed and plans outlined whereby the members may secure all the benefits possible by being members of the association.

A resolution was unanimously passed that the association join the Farmers Union of Brazos county in inviting the Hon. Thos. E. Watson of Georgia, to visit Bryan during the Farmers exhibit to be made in July and deliver an address. The secretary was instructed to convey the official invitation of the association to Mr. Watson.

Mayor J. T. Maloney sprung the trolley line to the A. and M. College again and its great need was discussed at length. Mr. Maloney stated that if the citizens of Bryan would offer a bonus of $10,000, he believed he could interest other parties with him to build the road. His proposition was that this bonus be raised and placed in the bank subject to his order when the road was completed and in operation. Not a dollar to be paid to him nor to any one else until the road was completed and the cars running and a guarantee that they would keep on running.

On motion the president was empowered to appoint a committee to canvass the town and see if the bonus could be raised. President Edge has named on that committee the following gentlemen: G. S. Parker, chairman, J. A. Myers, H. O. Boatwright, W. E. Saunders, A. W. Wilkerson, Tyler Haswell, J. E. Astin, A. W. Buchanan, M. H. James, J. L. Edge, E. F. Parks and W. J. Coulter.

In this connection the Eagle would state that in the meeting one prominent business man volunteered to give one-tenth of the required bonus. Several other gentlemen said they would subscribe, and all present favored the proposition and enthusiastically declared they believed the necessary amount could be raised.

There being no further business the association adjourned.

Sold Car Load of Hogs.

Mr. Paul E. Swancoat brought in a car load of fine fat hogs from his farm yesterday intending to ship them to Fort Worth, but found a buyer from the Panther city who paid him his price, thereby saving him the time and expense of making the shipment.

The Eagle hopes to hear of many more of our farmers doing the same thing.

WHISKY GAVE THEM AWAY.

A Drunken Row Leads to the Capture of a Band of Horse Thieves.

Last Monday, Mr. Griffin, the marshal from Hearne, called on Constable N. J. Alford to assist him in locating some stolen stock, which he had reason to believe had been brought into this vicinity. It is said that the thieves engaged in a drunken fight, one stabbing another with a knife. A young man who had been connected with the party, remarked while in a drunken condition, that he would give the party away, because of his cutting his friend, and from him was obtained the details of the affair from which the officers were able to land two men upon the charge of horse theft.

On Monday night these two officers worked nearly all night and succeeded in locating one mule at the Rockdale wood camp, where it had been sold, also locating another one at Taylor and hearing of another mule and horse, which have not yet been secured. These two officers were assisted by Constable Brown of Robertson county. The recovered stock was returned to the owners and the officers are still at work locating other stolen stock.—Rockdale Reporter.

Winning a Violin.

The way M. Ysaye, the great violinist, became the owner of a Guarnerius violin dated 1742 was thus quaintly told by himself:

"The Guarnerius was bought in Paris by a pupil of mine, a charming young woman. I envied her the violin, and fate gave it to me. I teach this pupil, and by and by I meet her sister, a most lovely young woman, with whom I fall in love straightway and marry. Soon I go to my sister-in-law, who was my pupil, and say to her:

"It is time you stop fooling with violin. You will never learn how to play it. I take the liberty of a big brother, but she do not like it for long time. At last she succumb to my experience and wisdom, and she stops playing. Then I say grandiloquently: 'I will take the Guarnerius, 1742.' I take it, and that is how the violin came into the possession of Ysaye."

They Meant Business.

A Chicago stage manager was telling of amusing incidents of blunders and errors caused by stage fright. In a romantic play recently revived one of the minor characters, a dairymaid, comes forward at the end of the act of a love romance and comments as follows:

"Hope filled their youth and whetted their love; they plighted their troth." But at one of the performances the girl who played the dairymaid was absent without notice. At the last moment the manager gave the lines to a shepherdess, who had never had lines to speak before and who was excessively nervous when her cue came. This is what the astonished audience heard: "Hope filled their trough and blighted their love; they whetted their tooth!"

Interested.

"Wot ye readin' about, Chimmy?" "About a guy named Hannibal. He wuz de greatest general of his time." "Football or ring?"—Kansas City Journal.

PUZZLES POLICE.

Before Marriage Woman Cut an Artery in Arm.

Vincennes, Ind., March 26.—Whether Mrs. Russell Culbertson murdered or killed herself after cleverly manufacturing evidence to suggest murder still puzzles the police. The discovery in the home of the dead woman of a piece of cloth which resembles the bandage tied around her mouth when she was found in a shed near her home leads the police to believe Mrs. Culbertson was her own slayer. The locating in Chicago of a woman suspected of implication in a plot to murder Mrs. Culbertson, and a declaration from this woman that she has not been away from Chicago since last July; that she could prove an alibi and would be willing to come to Vincennes to allay the suspicion aroused against her, has also served to indicate the tragic end of Mrs. Culbertson's life came by self-destruction.

A "man and woman dragged me there and made me swallow poison," were the last words of the woman before she died, but no trace has yet been found of any strangers in the neighborhood of the Culbertson home Wednesday afternoon, when the tragedy occurred.

Mrs. Culbertson often spoke of a brother, Dr. Overton, who, she said resided in Texas. He has not yet been located.

That Mrs. Culbertson attempted on previous occasion to take her life has been reported to the police. Before her marriage to Culbertson, she cut an artery in her left arm.

Mrs. Jennie Overton Culbertson, it is now reported, came from Dublin, Tex. Relatives are said to live there. Local authorities are attempting to communicate with them.

BELIEVED SHE SUICIDED.

Chief of Police Says He Is Not Seeking the Murderer.

Vincennes, Ind., March 26.—The Chicago woman who is sought in connection with the mysterious death of Mrs. Russell Culbertson is Mrs. Etta Longwell. She resides at 708 West Madison street, that city. She considered the search for her a joke and "willing to come with me to Vincennes if wanted." Chief Police Evans announced he is satisfied Mrs. Culbertson killed herself. "I do not seek the murderer further," said the chief.

Mrs. Culbertson also said her father resided in Texas, but never told where. She said both her brothers and father are physicians.

STEVENS MAKES DENIAL.

It Is Also Stated President Taft Has Not Committed Himself.

Washington, March 26.—In the house Thursday Mr. Stevens of Minnesota denied he was concerned in the preparation of an income tax bill in order to carry out any policy of President Taft on that subject. The newspapers he said had given that impression, and if allowed to go without correction it might lead to some embarrassment to the administration. He declared himself in favor of a modified income tax, and he thought a bill could be devised which would so segregate the various sources from which the tax might be collected as to leave no doubt as to what might be held to be constitutional and what not. It was, he said, his intention to prepare such a bill, and added that it was on his own responsibility, with the help of whatever sources of information he could draw from.

It was stated at the White House that President Taft has not committed himself in any way to an income tax, either as an immediate aid to the treasury or as a prospective measure to be considered by congress at its next session.

TALKS OF INCANTATIONS.

Woman Tells Judge She Is Out Considerable Cash.

Chicago, March 26.—In a case on hearing before Municipal Judge Uhler, Mary Slimak tells a story of the loss of $117 through belief in the power of incantations. These included a "black mass," supposed to have been held in a graveyard at midnight, where dirt was dug and candles burned. This one seance, she says, cost her $25, which is part of the amount she is trying to recover from Mrs. Sigmund Wysocki, a card reader, who denies the charges. The "black mass," it is alleged, was to drive away evil spirits and allow the girl's lover to return to her.

"ALL FOOLS' DAY."

Campaign to Make It "Optimists' Day" Is Now Being Conducted.

New York, March 26.—A campaign for the abolishment of "All Fools' day" and the establishment in its stead of a national "Optimists' day" on April 1, has been started by the Optimists club. A bill putting this design into effect has been sent to Senator Taylor of Tennessee for introduction in congress.

At the headquarters of the Optimists' club here a circular letter is being sent to governors of states, presidents of colleges and public men of various degrees urging the new plan. "April 1" the letter says, "ought to be a day of good will. At present observed, it is a relic of a barbaric age. The Optimists' club plans to change its charter so that every man, instead of playing practical jokes upon his neighbor, will devote the day to doing some good."

Spanish Composer Gone.

Madrid, March 26.—The death is announced of Ruperto Chapí, a popular Spanish composer.

DUTY AND RESPONSIBILITY OF NEWSPAPERS.

In refusing a motion to set aside the verdict of a jury in favor of a newspaper in a libel suit, Judge Gay of the supreme court of New York said: "While newspapers should be held to strict accountability for unjustifiable and untruthful assaults upon private character or upon business standing or credit, they deserve not punishment and rebuke, but public approval and commendation where, as in this instance, they truthfully and in strict conformity to the facts call public attention to those who are engaged in nefarious practices injurious to the public welfare."

This is a brief but comprehensive statement of the duty and responsibility of newspapers. No honest or truthful newspaper ever gives currency to suspicions, institutions or ruin of business of any individual or association, either public or private, mors that will injure the character. Nor is it within the province of a newspaper to do detective work with the object of discovering evidence against any suspected of being engaged in nefarious practices injurious to the public welfare. But when satisfactory proof of the existence of such nefarious practices is presented it is the duty of the newspaper to expose them, and in all such cases enlightened public opinion applauds such exposure.

In pursuance of this policy, the Eagle has several times during the last twelve months refused to publish exparte statements disparaging to citizens, either individually or collectively, because in no case was there any proof of wrong-doing. Nor has any criticism of any public man or set of men appeared in these columns without a basis of facts to sustain it.
